NOTE FOR THE DIRECTOR

FROM: Ed Proctor Ed

I have no problem with the attached cable to Rumsfeld--assuming your note refers to a recent conversation with him and assuming that he is going back to NATO to stay.

25X1A

I should remind you also of some old cable traffic from [REDACTED] about conversations with McAuliffe (Rumsfeld's deputy). The thrust of these cables follows:

25X6

--Support Rumsfeld wants from CIA is for his personal use, mainly on views [REDACTED]

25X6

--He wants inside, secret information (as opposed to public information). Arrangements were made to provide him with lateral dissem of DDO reports from [REDACTED] on these matters.

25X1A

--Rumsfeld is not looking for much in the way of finished intelligence.

25X1C

[REDACTED]

If your conversation with Rumsfeld makes all this irrelevant, then send the cable.

SUSPENSE

Remarks: ^{Date} I spoke to Rumsfeld, who is, I believe, a bit reserved. We left it that I would draft a proposed message to him, to be submitted to him before other action, which we would then coordinate with State if he ok'd, making the proposal formally. The attached is a first cut - Is it OK to send to him? -

Remarks:

Maybe we should try to get him
 on Goodpasture's staff instead — with the same functions (& more direct access) — He does have some US national staff as well as his NATO —
